 - Weak Conscience

'For if someone with a weak conscience sees you, with all your knowledge, eating in an idol's temple, won't that person be emboldened to eat what is sacrificed to idols? So this weak brother or sister, for whom Christ died, is destroyed by your knowledge. When you sin against them in this way and wound their weak conscience, you sin against Christ.'

‘Timothy, my son, I am giving you this command in keeping with the prophecies once made about you, so that by recalling them you may fight the battle well, holding on to faith and a good conscience, which some have rejected and so have suffered shipwreck with regard to the faith.’

SOULS IN TRANSITION

The Religious & Spiritual Lives of Emerging Adults

Christian Smith
with Patricia Snell

‘Despite often smarting from hard lessons learned, most of the emerging adults who were interviewed explicitly denied feeling any regrets about any of their past decisions, behaviours, or problems....’

...In fact, many emerging adults also appear, we think, to harbour regrets about the past even when they deny that they do. They clearly do not want to see themselves as having regrets, even though they get angry with themselves about mistakes and continue sometimes to be haunted by problems from the past.'

Christian Smith: 'Souls in Transition'

“The Bible takes sin seriously because it takes man (male and female) seriously. Christians do not deny the fact in some circumstances – of diminished responsibility. Rather we affirm that diminished responsibility always entails diminished humanity...”

..To say that somebody is “not responsible for his actions” is to demean him or her as a human being. It is part of the glory of being human that we are held responsible for our actions.”
