

From Death to Life

‘God has set eternity in the human heart’

“You have made us for yourself, and our hearts are restless, until they can find rest in you.”

Choose Life

‘Whoever wants to be my disciple must deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For whoever wants to save their life will lose it, but whoever loses their life for me will find it. What good will it be for someone to gain the whole world, yet forfeit their soul?’

Cheap Grace or Costly Grace?

Loving Others

A new command I give you: love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another.’ (John 13)

'The wisdom of the Desert Fathers includes the wisdom that the hardest spiritual work is to love the neighbour as self – to encounter another human being not as someone you can use, change, fix, help, save, enrol, convince or control, but simply as someone who can spring you from the prison of yourself, if you will allow it. All you have to do is recognise another you "out there" – your other self in the world – for whom you may care as instinctively as you care for yourself. To become that person, even for a moment, is to understand what it means to die to yourself. This can be as frightening as it is liberating. It may be the only real spiritual discipline there is.'
