Men walking...

What are they walking through?

How are they walking?

What are they walking through?

A nighttime photograph of a city street. The street is paved with large, light-colored tiles. On the left, there are trees and a building with a balcony. On the right, there is a modern building with a glass facade. The street is illuminated by warm, yellow streetlights, creating a soft glow. The sky is dark, and the overall atmosphere is quiet and contemplative.

They are walking through the women's story...

They loved him...

‘They did not believe them because their words seemed like nonsense.’

And they are not believed...

How are they walking?

They are walking as though he were dead...

We had hoped he'd be the one to redeem
Israel...V.21

They were talking with each other...(V.15)

They talked with him...

Though they were disillusioned, they did not forget who Jesus was.

She had forgotten everything else but she hadn't forgotten
him...

They showed hospitality...

Love even then...

- He saved her even then...
- He praised even then...
- They loved him even then...
- They cared for him even then...

‘Stay with us, for it is nearly evening; the day is almost over.’ (v. 29)

For, it was only in doing so that they recognised the one with whom they were walking...

Who are they walking with?

I am the God who walks with you...
